

WORKING TOGETHER TO IMPROVE QUALITY HEALTH CARE

America's leading doctors, nurses, clinicians, hospitals, health insurance providers, biopharmaceutical companies and employers are committed to working together in this unprecedented time, to ensure every American receives the care they need and deserve. As we work to help stop the spread of COVID-19, America's health care leaders are working together to improve the quality of health care and expand access to the world's best doctors, nurses, specialists, treatments and technology.

Since the onset of the crisis, private health care companies have been working to get Americans the innovative tests, treatments and vaccines they need today.

THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT AND LEADING PHARMACEUTICAL COMPANIES ARE WORKING TOGETHER TO COMBAT COVID-19 WITH INNOVATIVE VACCINES AND TREATMENTS:

- Vice President Mike Pence: "Our Pharmaceutical Companies, Which Are Recognized As The Greatest In The World, Have Already Formed A Consortium To Work Together, To Share Information In The Development Of Therapeutics And Vaccines." (STAT, 3/2/20)

PHARMACEUTICAL COMPANIES ARE INVESTING IN RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT AND DONATING SUPPLIES AS PART OF PUSH TO COMBAT COVID-19:

- PhRMA Executive Vice President Of Public Affairs Robert Zirkelbach: "[Pharmaceutical Companies] Are Putting At Risk Significant Resources To Develop, Test And Manufacture New Treatments And Vaccines Without Knowing Whether They Will Actually Work For Patients." (STAT, 3/2/20)
